

Sunday Eve

9:30

Dear Family,

I've put in another busy week. Since it is getting closer to the end of the term our work has been increasing by leaps & bounds.

Mass-Abbot had their Spring Term Party this Friday. Due to factors beyond my control, <sup>(the guy down the hall took sick)</sup> I had a blind date. I was very fortunate, the young lady was an Irish gal by the name of Katty Martin, tall red-headed and nice looking; begorra! I had a very good time as there was just a nice crowd for the auditorium about 175 couples.

Afterward we went out and had Hamburg + Milkshakes.

Last night (Sat.) I went out to the show and saw King's Row. A very good show too I thought. There was a terrific crowd waiting to get in and I had to wait over a half-hour before I could get in. It was 1:00 when I got in so I slept late this morning.

This afternoon I worked in the kitchen and I got 4 slices of ice cream Even if you don't get paid well you eat well back here.

As ever
Punks.
